NOTES: Notification of new law practice (other than incorporated legal practices or unincorporated legal practices)

Part 3.2 Legal Profession Uniform Law (Victoria)

This form is to be used for notification new law practices (other than incorporated legal practices or unincorporated legal practices). Those wishing to commence engaging in legal practice as a sole practitioner, law firm or community legal service should use this form.

The term 'law practice' is defined in the Legal Profession Uniform Law (Victoria) ('the Uniform Law') as follows:

"law practice" means:

- a) a sole practitioner; or
- b) a law firm; or
- c) a community legal service; or
- d) an incorporated legal practice; or
- e) an unincorporated legal practice

Other forms are available for those wishing to commence legal practice as an incorporated legal practice or unincorporated legal practice. Please see the 'Notification of intention to start providing legal services' form for those practices.

Please ensure you provide the following information:

for each a sole practitioner:

- (i) the practitioner's name and address for service;
- (ii) any conditions imposed on the practitioner's Australian practising certificate in relation to engaging in legal practice; and
- (iii) any business name under which the practitioner carries on business.

for each law firm that engages in legal practice in this jurisdiction:

- (i) the firm's name and address for service; and
- (ii) any business name under which the firm carries on business; and
- (iii) the name of each partner of the firm;

for each community legal service

- (i) the service's name and address for service; and
- (ii) the name of each supervising legal practitioner for the service.

Professional indemnity insurance

Before commencing to engage in legal practice in Victoria, each legal practitioner must hold, or be covered by an approved insurance (professional indemnity) policy. Incorporated legal practices and community legal services must hold an approved insurance policy themselves and the policy must cover the legal practice in which they are engaged. Please see Part 4.4 of the Uniform Law and section 13 of the Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act 2014 (Vic) for these requirements.

Upon confirmation of registration of the entity, you will be required to provide the entity identification number to the Legal Practitioners Liability Committee (LPLC) in order to obtain a certificate of Insurance (COI). Once the COI has been issued by the LPLC, you must provide this office with a copy via the Lawyer Enquiry Form to complete the registration process. If you are an interstate entity seeking to be registered in Victoria, please include your current COI to accompany this form.

Trust money

A law practice that receives trust money to which Part 4.2 of the Uniform Law applies must establish and maintain a general trust account in Victoria in accordance with the Legal Profession Uniform General Rules 2015. Law practices are required to notify the Board upon establishing a trust account of the details of the trust account and the appointment of an approved external examiner of trust records.
